Volunteer Efforts Make A Difference!

Wayne, MI. – October 15, 2008 – Wouldn't it feel great to make a difference in someone's life? October 25th is National Make a Difference Day, America's largest day of doing good. It's a celebration of neighbors helping neighbors. One local project is happening at 166 South Biggs Street in Belleville. Volunteers will be making repairs on a house leased by Liberty Hill Housing Corporation in Wayne, to people with developmental disabilities.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for the community to show support for their neighbors," said LHHC volunteer coordinator Nicole Scott. "Twenty people from Schoolcraft College have signed up to help and we can definitely use more!"

In 2007, three million people volunteered nationally for thousands of projects across the country on Make a Difference Day. If you are interested in helping with this project, contact Nicole Scott at (734) 722-5346.
